Peter, James and John wanted to build a "booth" for Jesus and just stay on the mountain where His transfiguration took place. But the Son of God, the Chosen One, knew that He must instead keep moving toward His Crucifixion. We, too, must rise from worship and do what we can to hasten the coming of the Kingdom.

Pedro, Santiago y Juan querían construir un "stand" para Jesús y simplemente quedarse en la montaña donde tuvo lugar su transfiguración. Pero el hijo de Dios, el elegido, sabía que en su lugar debe seguir avanzando hacia su crucifixión. Nosotros también debemos levantarlo de la adoración y hacer lo que podamos para acelerar la venida del Reino.

What is Lectio Divina?

Lectio Divina is Latin for "divine reading," "spiritual reading," or "holy reading" and represents a method of prayer and scriptural reading intended to promote communion with God and provide special spiritual insights. The principles of lectio divina were expressed around the year 220 and later practiced by Catholic monks, especially the monastic rules of Sts. Pachomius, Augustine, Basil, and Benedict. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said in a 2005 speech, "I would like in particular to recall and recommend the ancient tradition of lectio divina: the diligent reading of Sacred Scripture accompanied by prayer brings about that intimate dialogue in which the person reading hears God who is speaking, and in praying, responds to him with trusting openness of heart."

If you are interested in learning how to practice Lectio Divina, please join us at 1:00pm all Mondays of Lent in the church office.

This Sunday's Mass is offered for the repose of the soul of James Hopcus. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

La Misa del domingo se ofrece por el descanso eterno de James Hopcus. Concédete el descanso eterno, oh Señor, y deja que brille sobre él la luz perpetua. Que su alma y todas las almas de los fieles difuntos descansen en paz
