When Jesus asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, He opened the door for a lifechanging relationship with Him. Scripture says her testimony drew many others to Him as well. We, too, must be ready to respond whenever and wherever the Lord speaks to us and be prepared for it to change our lives!

Cuando Jes3s le pidi3 un trago de agua a la samaritana, abri3 la puerta para una relaci3n de vida con 3l. La escritura dice que su testimonio atrajo a muchos otros a 3l tambi3n. ¡ Nosotros, tambi3n, debemos estar preparados para responder cuando y donde el Se3or nos hable y estar preparados para cambiar nuestras vidas!

What is Lectio Divina?

Lectio Divina is Latin for "divine reading," "spiritual reading," or "holy reading" and represents a method of prayer and scriptural reading intended to promote communion with God and provide special spiritual insights. The principles of lectio divina were expressed around the year 220 and later practiced by Catholic monks, especially the monastic rules of Sts. Pachomius, Augustine, Basil, and Benedict. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said in a 2005 speech, "I would like in particular to recall and recommend the ancient tradition of lectio divina: the diligent reading of Sacred Scripture accompanied by prayer brings about that intimate dialogue in which the person reading hears God who is speaking, and in praying, responds to him with trusting openness of heart."
