Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. "But" the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

La lectura de hoy de Apocalipsis ofrece una visión de la ciudad de Dios, la nueva Jerusalén. "Pero" los obispos' pastoral sobre la mayordomía nos recuerda, "que 'la vida por venir' está en continuidad con esta vida actual a través de los bienes humanos, los propósitos humanos dignos, que la gente fomenta ahora."

LECTIO: MARY

WHAT IS IT?

Why is Mary so important to Catholics, and why have so many people been devoted to her over the centuries? What can we learn about her from Sacred Scripture? Find out the answers to these questions and much more in this Lectio series on Mary.

Featuring the insightful biblical teaching of Dr. Brant Pitre, Lectio Mary: The Bible and the Mother of God examines what Scripture, the life of Christ, and the early Church fathers reveal about Mary. By closely examining the connections between the Old and New Testaments, Dr. Pitre presents clear and easily understood explanations about the life and identity of Mary, the Mother of God.

This dynamic video program and accompanying workbook combine an in-depth biblical study with insightful questions, answers to common misconceptions about Mary, and personal reflections to lead the participants into a deeper love for Mary and a clearer understanding of her role in the Christian life.

WHEN IS IT?

The study will be held on Tuesday afternoons following the Rosary, at 12:30pm in the Education Building, beginning June 4th.

A second group is being considered for Thursday evenings, if there is enough interest. Please let Fran in the office know if you'd like to participate.
